VISION

“Semi Multicolored Caucasian”

A diverse ensemble presents a program of rhythmically charged music from many different cultures. Using music arranged by Brent Edmondson for string quintet with emphasis on the double bass, the group sparks a candid discussion on cultural appropriation, celebrating differences, and possible artistic paths forward.

TARGET AUDIENCE

a la NPR Tiny Desk concert series, this program is designed to be eclectic and to appeal to fans of several genres: World music, Jazz, Indie rock, Classic rock, and classical music are all present in this program.
